Think for yourself, act for others

Ms Kate Hackett – Head of Sixth Form

27 February 2019

Dear Parent/Carer

Sixth Form Conference

After the success of last year's Cheney Sixth Form conference, I am happy to say that we are holding this year's event on Thursday 7 March. All of Year 12 will be off-timetable on that day, and we are inviting a selection of Year 11s who have applied to Sixth Form to come along as well.

The theme of the Conference this year is 'Taking Responsibility' – and students will be attending a range of workshops on this topic. Students will have the opportunity to hear from PC Massie about keeping safe on the streets, to think about world economics, and to learn about managing stress. Students will have some time to think about their personality type, start thinking about life goals, and hear from some inspirational leaders.

The day will start at 8.15am in the Lower Gym, with refreshments, and end at 3.10pm. Students will be given a personalised itinerary and hopefully will have an interesting and thought-provoking day.

Yours faithfully

Kate Hackett – KH@cheney.oxon.sch.uk
