

Mr Bampton- Assistant Headteacher Pastoral

10 June 2019

Dear Parents/Carers,

Changes to School Pastoral Structure

I am writing to let you know about some key changes in the school that will come into effect from September 2019. The pastoral structure of year teams will be as follows:

The role of Head of Student Progress will have overall responsibility for the academic outcomes of students within one year group. They will work with students across the year groups outlined below:

- Head of Student Progress Year 7 and Transition - Ms Rebecca Robson
- Head of Student Progress Year 8- Mr Andrew Olubodun
- Head of Student Progress Year 9 - Ms Manjula Pillay-Sayers
- Head of Student Progress Year 10- Mr Andy Ransome
- Head of Student Progress Year 11 - Mr Thomas Stacey

The Pastoral Leader will be fully committed to the wellbeing of each and every student in their year. Developing and maintaining a positive attitude for all of our students is a priority of the school. If any student needs support, their Pastoral Leader is there to listen, offer help and advice, try to resolve problems, or just offer a quiet space to think. They will celebrate successes and achievements in the year group and ensure reward and recognition is a core aspect of the school. The Pastoral Leader will work closely with the Head of Student Progress to ensure that the care of students promotes their achievement and well being.

- Pastoral Leader Year 7 - Mr Thomas Haines
- Pastoral Leader Year 8 - Mr Lee Fieldwick
- Pastoral Leader Year 9 - Ms Ann Blair
- Pastoral Leader Year 10 - Ms Pauline O'Donnell
- Pastoral Leader Year 11 - Miss Rachael Clear

In addition, Ms Miranda Giles will continue in the role of Pastoral Assistant. She will continue to support the Pastoral Team, and focus particularly on intervention groups and additional support for some of our families as well as following up attendance and punctuality.

Our school website will reflect these changes to the pastoral system and will include updated contact details from the 18 July 2019 ready for the new school year.

Thank you all for your continued support and if you have any questions please do not hesitate to get in touch.

Kind regards,

Mr Liam Bampton
Assistant Headteacher- Pastoral
