

Online Parents' Evening Survey, June 2021.

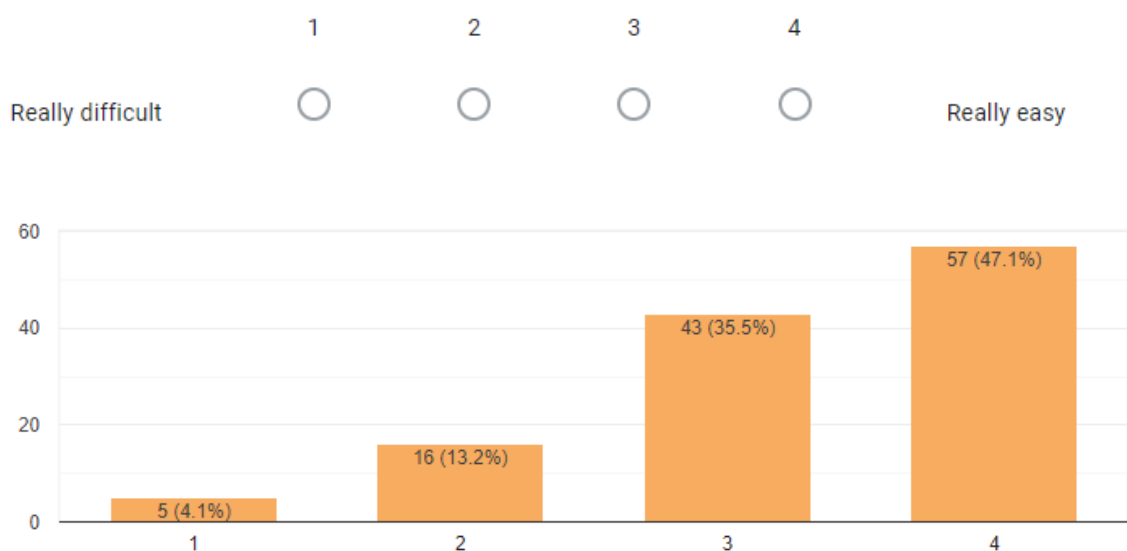

To gather feedback on the online parents' evenings that we ran this year to find out if they should be a permanent feature of our offer.

121 respondents from all years.

How easy were the online parents' evening appointments to make?

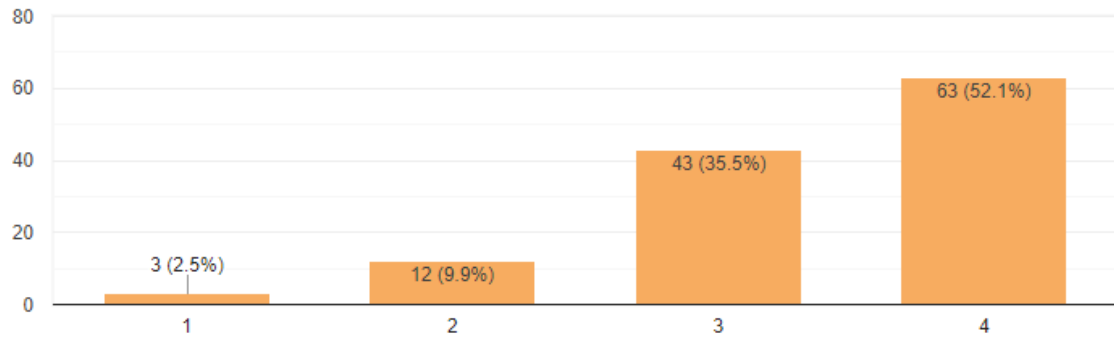

How easy were the online parents' evening appointments to participate in?

How useful was the online parents' evening in helping you gauge how your child is progressing at school?

1                      2                      3                      4

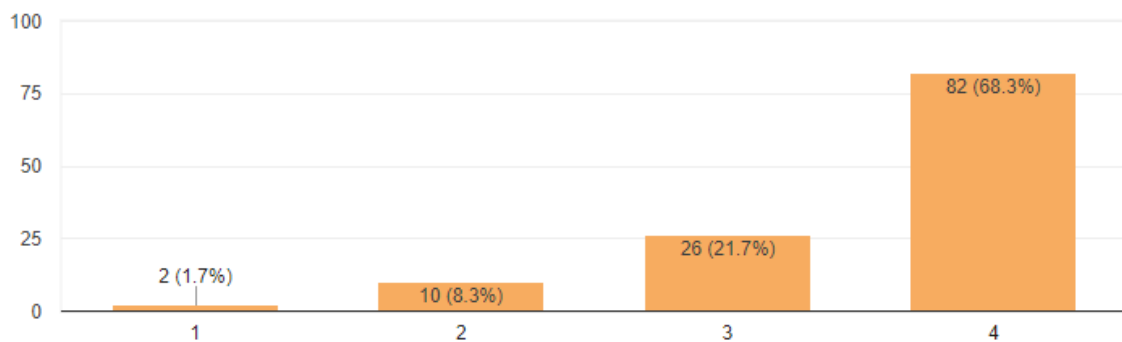

Not useful at all                              Really useful

How time effective was the online parents' evening?

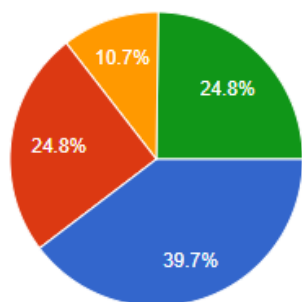

1                      2                      3                      4

Not time effective                              Very time effective

Would you prefer the school to continue with online parents' evenings?

121 responses

- Yes
- Yes if some aspects could be improved
- No I prefer a face to face meeting
- A mixture of both would be helpful